After 47 years he retired as a Regional Sales Manager, in Houston, TX. Harry was proud of the relationships he made with his customers and his ability to work his way up through the company. He was a devoted member of the Kingsland Baptist Church in Katy. In his younger years Harry enjoyed fishing, bird hunting, playing in softball and bowling leagues, their family summer trips to the UP, and always an avid golfer. Above all Harry was proud to say that he had a personal relationship with God.
