“ I remember when I first met you and Russ, I was a little kid who walked down the road to play with Sara and R.J. as kids. You were always outside on the mower getting some sun and Russ would be at work in the garden. I built an awesome relationship with Sara and R.J. I became your fourth kid because I was always there. Many memories of horse back riding, swimming in the pool during the summer, and you, Russ, and my parents, having get togethers. I remember breaking my foot during one of those get togethers, by jumping off the trampoline. How you came down the next day and was trying to get me to walk on it even though I would cry and tell you I couldn't. I remember the one time you took me with your family up to the cabin. I had so much fun! Remember you coaching Bellevue volleyball and going to practices, I believe you coached Kandis. Don't worry about Sara she has a forever friend that will take care of her. I am glad you are not in pain anymore. Say hi to my dad for me. You all are in my thoughts.

“ I know it's been a long time since I've seen you hope but when you go out on your own and start living your own life you sometimes lose sight of those you grew up with. Our families had alot to do with each other and I'll always remember all the fishing and hunting and just get together to make fun of our neighbors we had. We had some good laughs just watching your dad do goofy things. When you see him give him a kick in the rump for old times. You'll always be remembered so Rest In Peace Hope and we will see you again someday.

“ I know its been years since we seen each other or even spoke to each other but So many childhood memories that I have, you are in them! You always made me laugh...and maybe scared me just a little! I am lucky and thankful to still have Kandis in my life.. You always said we were 2 of a kind...and I will always here you say " the reason no one else talks when you two are together is because you dont leave enough oxygen for the rest of us!" My favorite saying from you...
