

Ida Belle Morrison

February 15, 1929 - September 29, 2015

Ida Belle Morrison, 86, of Charlotte, passed away on September 29, 2015 in Charlotte, MI. She was born on February 15, 1929 to Martin and Nova (Crisher) Weldon in Dimondale, MI. Ida was a kind hearted spirit who overcame many obstacles through a difficult childhood. Her father passed away when she was two. When her mother remarried she gained 5 half siblings. At the age of eight she was hospitalized in Ann Arbor for a year for polio treatment. At the age of twelve Ida's mother died and she was placed with a foster care family, separating her from her siblings. Her foster care experience was a positive time and her foster family remained in her life until they died. After 37 years Ida was reunited with her half siblings. Ida married Harry Morrison on December 24, 1948 and they always celebrated their anniversary before celebrating Christmas. Ida was a long time member of the West Carmel Congregational Church.

She always placed her family first and loved them unconditionally. She loved to take photos at family gatherings. No one could leave without posing for a family picture. She loved puzzles and was a wiz at putting them together quickly. She also was an avid reader until her eyes could no longer see well enough and loved sharing bags of books with friends and sisters. Many will remember her for her ever present welcoming smile that lit up the room.

Ida is survived by her sons, Larry (Terry Sue) Morrison of Brethren, MI, Keith
