“ I'm so very sad I was never allowed to know my Uncle Milo and Aunt Isabel, nor my cousins. I have always had such a void in my heart. I was to nieve to know people could find family with the use of the internet until too much time passed and I convinced myself I these people would not want anything to do with me because of the lineage I came from. With h heavy heart I say this - I wish I could have spent time with Uncle Milo and his family and with Aunt Isabel and her family. I think you would have liked me.
