“ If I had to describe Mrs. Lavery in not 1 but two words it would be "Gentle Soul." This breaks my heart to write this, but I always feel that people I love deserve to have a tribute shared about them. Okay, another descriptive word, patient. Since I got word that Mrs. Lavery had passed away, in spite of being so saddened by this-- almost automatically so many great memories have been flooding back from childhood -not just of Mrs.Lavery, but all the Lavertys!

She always put others needs, especially her children and Mr. Lavery's, before her own. I didn't quite understand that until I became a mom. I have always thought of her like a second mom. This thought was a "no-brainer" since I was fortunate to have met Michelle and Lisa around when I was 4 years old. I still think of Lisa as my best friend and spent so much time at either 514 or 517 N. Forest St. (I'm drawing a blank on which house # is which -Lavertys' or my uncle's house) that I was on the receiving end of Mrs. Lavery's kindness too many times to count.

Mrs. Lavery was always so patient with Lisa and I-- our playing-running in and outside over and over, being loud & giggling late at night during sleepovers to later on being teenagers in our "cruising days." She put up with Lisa and I being on the phone most days after school recapping what happened. I can almost hear her "Hello" after I dialed 543-3198.

I always admired her many talents- embroidery, sewing, and creating really cool Barbie furniture out of simple household items. She should be considered the Queen of Reduce, Reuse, Recycle" and had a flair about the things she could recreate or re-purpose!

Mrs. Lavery-thank you for being you. Thank you for treating me with such kindness for as long as I've known you. Thank you for having your family which allowed me to have had a life-long friend in your daughter, Lisa. You are loved. Rest in peace. Cindy
