

Jacqueline Lorraine Adams

June 26, 1934 - March 26, 2018

Jacqueline Lorraine Adams, one of Charlotte's beloved Elementary School teachers for 33 years, passed away on March 26, 2018 in Lansing. She was born on June 26, 1934 to Bernard and Fern (Carpenter) Rhines in Eaton Rapids. She and her husband, the late Ed Adams, shared a life of love, laughter, children and grandchildren, leaving behind many memories for her beloved family. Jackie was a role model for many; known as Mom, Grannyyette, or whatever Ed called her, and was so very proud of her children and grandchildren.

Jackie was a collector of teddy bears, there are hundreds, and "junk" catalogs. She loved to arrange flowers that grew in her garden around the house. She was a member of the Eaton County Historical Society, and kept track of obituaries of those who passed for the Society's files. Her own personal Genealogy research was traced back to 800 A.D. Jackie was able to recall names and stories from each of her many volumes of family names of family genealogy. Her family was amazed at her speed with deciphering, as well as her thoughtful gift buying from the various "junk catalogs". The family's dinner table was served with new recipes, some much better than others, but they recall being the "guinea pigs" for many meal ideas. Jackie loved to serve her food "lava hot", and often followed meals with sugar cookies with raisins.

Jackie and Ed loved to travel around the country in their 5th wheel. They especially enjoyed spending winters at their home in Bullhead City AZ.

“ Jackie and I have been dear friends since 7th grade. A couple of years ago she drove me to radiation treatments at McLaren Hospital. I was a bridesmaid when she and Ed married. We have been dear friends for many, many years. Her shining light will be missed and of course our get togethers with Doris, Pat and Phyllis are over. God Bless her and it is good to know that she and Ed have been reunited in Heaven.
My sympathy for your loss of one very fine gal who dearly loved her family.
God Bless you all.
