“ My sympathies -- Jackie was one of the most supportive people I worked with. Very blunt -- which was what I needed! And, she was so sweet, simply precious.

“ Dear Mrs. Bruce, Julie, Kristen and family. I am so saddened to hear of Jackie's passing. She truly was a friend to all who knew her. Her service at Prays went way above and beyond what was expected. I always joked with her about taking the last incubator at the old HGB hospital before I was born, so I didn't get one! I am praying for your family. Love and hugs

“ Dear Jackie's family..... I just want to share with you how very much her family meant to her.... She was so proud of her beautiful daughter, and her wonderful grandsons. She loved her sister, and her Mom, and loved to tell stories about her friends growing up, and stories about her dad...and all the history of Charlotte. She was a PEOPLE person to the max. Jackie has touched my life so much, and did from the moment I met her. I LOVED working with her, and learned what a gracious, loving human being that she was. Jackie is going to leave a big hole in our hearts at Pray Funeral Home, as well as her friends that grew up with her, her Bruce family, her golf family.....she LOVED people and relationships! God graced us with a beautiful masterpiece when he gave us Jackie!!!! Love, Lori
