

James S Bernheisel

September 27, 1971 - September 20, 2024

James "Jim" "Jimmy" Scott Bernheisel, a man who lived his life to the fullest even with all odds against him at birth, died on Friday, September 20, 2024. Jim 52, was born on September 27, 1971 in Charlotte, the son of Arthur Bernheisel and JoAnn (VanDorpe) Lefever. If there was Bingo around town Jim was there. He played every week at the Senior Center and was a caller at the American Legion. Jim also enjoyed trips to baseball games, bowling, and skydiving with his buddy Stewart. He was also very lucky when it came to trips to the casino. Jim is survived by his mother, JoAnn Lefever; siblings, John (Candace) Bernheisel, and Betty Jo Adams; special friends, Pat Yockey, and the entire Osier Family; and several extended family members. He was predeceased by his father, Arthur Bernheisel; and brother, Jeffery Lynn Bernheisel.

“ Oh, Jamesy, I am so sad to hear this. I loved seeing you everyday at Peckham, so many years ago and keeping up with you on Facebook. You were truly a precious man. I remember when you were a baby. You were so cute. 🥹

Your spirit will always be with us, your memories we will always hold close to our hearts. I remember when James and his parents lived here in Florida, he wanted to go to the Monster truck races. My husband and I took James, but the weather didn't really cooperate. It was cold!! Especially for Florida. We ended up covering up with a blanket to watch the trucks.
