

Jannette Elena Villarreal

December 6, 1965 - July 2, 2017

Jannette Elena (Jones) Villarreal, 51, of Dimondale, passed away at her home on Sunday, July 2, 2017. Jannette was born on December 6, 1965 in Traverse City, Michigan, the daughter of Ashley (Arlene) and Linda Jones. She was a 1984 graduate of Potterville High School and was employed by Michigan National Bank, Looking Glass Realty and the Michigan Osteopathic Association. She was an avid gardener and enjoyed working in her flower gardens. Jannette also loved knitting and crocheting, during the winter she crocheted rugs and donated them to the Humane Society. Shopping was another favorite hobby, Jannette absolutely loved shopping for shoes and clothing. She enjoyed designing and selling her jewelry at different craft shows around the area. Jannette also loved to travel, each year she would travel to Mackinac Island for a weekend getaway, and she also enjoyed visiting family and friends in New Hampshire. She cherished her 1972 Hurst Olds Convertible given to her by her father. Above all Jannette loved her family. She will be remembered for being very giving, for having a loving heart, being generous of her time and talents and also for her own resiliency.

Jannette was preceded in death by her mother, Linda (Tanner) Jones; son, Jacob Villarreal; and sister, Sarah Jones. Left to cherish her memory are her parents, Ashley and Arlene Jones, of Potterville, MI; brother, Mark Jones of Farmington, MI; two very special friends Amy and Phil Kelso of Charlotte, MI; and her two precious goldens, Rocky and Riley.

The family will receive friends on Thursday, July 6, 2017, from 2-4:00 p.m. and 6-8:00 p.m. at Pray Funeral Home. Funeral Service will be held Friday, July 7, 2017 at 10:30 a.m., at Pray Funeral Home with Rev. Fr. Dwight Ezop officiating. Interment will take place at Dewitt Cemetery. If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to The American Cancer Society. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Jannette on her Tribute Page at www.PrayFuneral.com. I'm heartbroken. We were on vacation and I just heard. I first met Jann through our children's classroom. She married an old high school friend of mine, and Jacob and my daughter were friends in the same classroom when Jacob passed. We kept in touch through the years, and I own several pieces of jewelry she made. She had such a kind soul. Sending prayers to her family and friends. She will be greatly missed. Godspeed, Jann.

“ I don't know where to begin. I love Jann. She was a giver, she cared. She threw my baby showers and surprised me with an evening of making jewelry for me wedding. She changed my life. She helped me grow. I'm so sorry for your loss and it is a loss to the world. She's here always with us. In our hearts and in the lessons she taught us. That laugh. ❤️

My heart is so heavy with sadness ...Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.(quote by puz.) To short of a time was the light that was in our lives is now gone, but a bouquet of memories will hold you close within our hearts or the rest of your lives. I wish God had spared you for a few more years...Miss you*

“ My dear best friend. We shared good times and bad times. We laughed, we cried and were there for each other for the past 30. You tried to pass on your gardening skills, but I'm not sure I was a good student. I wished I had more time to learn. We helped each other spend our hard earned paychecks on important things like clothes and shoes and although our closets were overflowing, we still enjoyed our shopping excursions. We are so lost right now and our hearts are breaking. We miss you and love you. Phil and I enjoyed spending time with you over all these years. You were an incredible, loving friend and will be deeply missed. Your friendship meant the world to us. Our lives were enriched by you kindness, generosity, and love. God bless and rest in peace. Love you always!! Phil and Amy

“ My dear friend, Jann.
Oh, how I'm going to miss you, I already do. Such a wonderful, giving person. I loved to hear you laugh. I wish I had been there more for you in the past year but am so very thankful that we became such good friends. I enjoyed your texts of encouragement and am so grateful to have been able to spend time with you. It was so hard not to text you this morning about some good news I had gotten, I knew you'd be so happy.
You know that when I see French Fries and Mt. Dew, I will always think of you! How could I not? Seriously!
I'm going to miss our talks. I am so blessed to have known you. I honestly can't believe you're gone. Thank you, for being an amazing friend. ♡♡ I Love you...

“ My heart hurts and I'm still in disbelief. We just set up a dinner date with her for next Monday. I wish it would have been sooner. We had been texting often over the last few months during her health issues. I am saving every single one of those correspondences in my phone. Jann always held her head high no matter what life has thrown her. She was always honest when I would ask how she was doing during these last few months. She would say "one day at a time". I will cherish all our swap meet weekends and the friendship we had. Ashley whenever I hear "Jump" on the radio I think of you as you always said you thought of us. Fly high my sweet friend and know you are loved and will be missed by many. 💖💖💖
