“ I worked with Jason for over 8 years at Lear. I can't remember how many times me and Jay rock would laugh hysterically while working at Lear about the movie Rocky. we'd reenact the last moments of the big fight in true "rocky" fashion. We would act out the last dramatic scenes of the music score while reenacting the last dramatic punches of the boxing match. "Don't go down!" He would yell (from the movie of course). then I would yell "you can't win!". then we both going to some uncontrollable faze from laughing!. I will never forget you brother.our time together was short ,but the memories will be forever. "rocky 3" came on late last night. I figured I'd watch it from beginning to the end since it was something you would love to see. but then again maybe you were watching...

“ Your heart was so big. Your smile always shining. Your love was deep. Your happiness fleeting. You deserved more than you got and got more than you deserved. There will always be a place in my heart for you. I am thankful your grandma took you church when you were little and you asked Jesus into your heart. RIH Jay. Love always ~

“ I am so shocked and so sorry for your loss. Jay was a great guy and he opened his home and heart to many people including myself. He was always so friendly and warm hearted to everyone he met and he will truly be missed.

“ My thought and prayers are with you in this difficult time. I knew Jason while I worked at Lear. He always did his job to the fullest, any way he could do it better he would do it to the best of his ability, and then show-off to let you know he could do it better than you. Was always a funny, all around good person. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ There are many stories about the legendary after parties Jason threw at this house. I always loved going there and meeting his other friends. Watching the idiots arm wrestle, lol, shooting pool or just hanging out and watching the bar dramas that spilled over to the after party. It was always fun and entertaining. Jason was such a great guy and his man-cave was his sanctuary. He was one of the kindest people I have ever had the good fortune and privilege to know. I will miss you sweet brother. Love you always. “ My condolences to the Family and Friends as you grieve. At such times of sorrow we may ask, "Will I ever see or embrace my loved one again?" Jesus answers at John 11:11-44 saying: "Lazarus! Come on out!" And he did. Patiently waiting for all those in the memorial tombs to hear Jesus' voice and come on out. May we all be there to welcome all those sleeping in death back to an earth that God originally promised. - Acts 24:15; Psalm 37:29; Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 65:21-23 Sincerely, La Chelle Yates filletmignon31@yahoo.com
