“ I'm very sorry to hear of your father's illness and death. Hearing you three sons speak so very highly of your father was truly meaningful and a huge tribute to him. I don't know of any better way to honor your father than to give your personal testimonies of his so many attributes & talents. Thank you for sharing your stories & blessing us as God has blessed you with a wonderful father. Very Sincerely,

“ Jeff is my brother in law. When he and my sister Lorel would visit us in Columbus, I would create a Things to do list for him. We are forever grateful for the railing he installed and the lesson on fixing the toilet.

“ Dear Beverly, Julie, Chris and family,
My heart is heavy yet rejoicing that Jeff is now with Jesus. It is so hard to let go of people that we love. I've always thought of Jeff like a cousin and loved him as a member of my family... I have so many great memories of our childhood together that I will never forget. I will hold these memories close in my heart. Jeff was a great man and will truly be missed. ❤️

“Of all the men and men relationships I have experienced in my lifetime, none come as close as the time spent with Jeff getting to know each other over breakfast at FlapJack's, South Men's Huddle, and our Bible study together with SPUR. Jeff was my brother in Christ, but he was also my best friend. We learned from each other and grew together in our walk with the Lord. We spent many breakfast's sharing and listening to each other talk about our lives and the impact circumstances had on us. You know you have something special, when you connect and can share with each other what is on your heart. I will miss the reality of his presence in my life, but only for a short time. Jeff has gone ahead of me, but I am not far behind. We will reconnect with Jesus and that will last forever.

“ Jeff will be fondly remembered for his servants' heart and friendly smile. We enjoyed all the opportunities to chat with him in our New Horizon's Sunday School class. Rob had a great time with him on the mission trip to Solid Rock Bible Camp and appreciated all the skills he so willingly used. Lorel, our thoughts and prayers will be with you and all of the family. May God bless you and give you comfort.
