“ I am so sorry for the loss of a father, brother, uncle, grandpa and friend. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. I have been praying for all of you and Jeff ever since he was diagnosed this year. When I learned of this latest set-back it broke my heart. I prayed even harder. I wanted him to be healed of his cancer, but sometimes God says no. I accepted this and knew that Jeff was a Christian and knew Jesus as his Lord and Savior, so I know I will see him again one day. Jeff was a great person. He helped anyone who needed help. He was a wonderful father-in-law to my son Joshua. I know he will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. I know he is in heaven and is having a great time. He has no more pain, no more suffering and he will be watching over his wonderful family. God bless you Jeff and your family.
