

Jennie Lynn Hillard

October 2, 1983 - July 1, 2023

Jennie Lynn Hillard, 39, of Nashville, a loving wife, mother, and daughter, died peacefully at her home surrounded by her family on Saturday, July 1, 2023. Jennie was born October 2, 1983 in Battle Creek, the daughter of Jack Alton and Kathy Sue (Kirby) Wyant. She graduated from Maple Valley High School in 2001, before working a few years as a Vet-Tech and attending college in Battle Creek. Jennie married the love of her life, Dustin Hillard on July 13, 2013. Together, Dustin and Jennie raised six sons, and suffered the loss of a daughter, Koeli. Family was the primary focus and passion of Jennie's life. She devoted every minute and every ounce of her spirit to being a loving mother and making memories as a family. Her children will forever remember her as the strongest and smartest person they ever knew. Even in the face of an illness that brought her to her knees, she remained positive, upbeat, and determined to get better. Her family will always feel her love close in their hearts.

Jennie is survived by her husband, Dustin Hillard; their sons, Hogan, Dayton, Kacen, Crewin, Daxon, and Avin; her mother, Kathy (Ray) Webb; siblings, Ashley (Bob) Woodmansee, Amy Webb, and Ryan (Hayley) Webb; siblings-in-law; Dan (Heather Granger) Hillard, Brittany VanLiew, and Jeff (Felicia) Hillard; and grandparents, Gene and Bonnie Wyant. She was predeceased by her daughter, Koeli Hillard; father, Jack Wyant; and grandmother, Robbie Maggard.
