“ Hi Cuz, I miss our reminiscing of what folks did in the good old days. It was so much fun when you brought your Mom to the Crumback Reunions & she would tell of the different things you & your Sisters would do & when Leo would try something funny to get you all in trouble or was that Corky? Oh well I'm still going to miss you & I wished that we could have spent more time together. Love your Cuz's. Phyl & Ken

“ Oh sweet Jeri - the wonderful memories you gave me while we were your next door neighbors. Raising my kids next door was a wonderful experience. I remember the day you called to let me know that my son was out watering the back of the shed. We had just taught the then 2 yr old that it was OK to pee outdoors in the woods on a camping trip where we found ourselves camping in the pickup camper in a location with no toilet facilities. Now I had to teach my young son why he could pee in the woods but not in our own backyard. I also remember going to help you catch a pet rabbit that someone over on Vermontville had left behind when they moved out. You taught my kids to love rabbits. That love blossomed into a 4H project - and then raising nearly 200 rabbits and showing them on the US National Show Circuit. They won LOTS of ribbons and trophies and learned so much during those years. I thank you for the part you played in all of our lives. I only wish we had stayed closer once we bought a house and moved out of the neighborhood. I visited again a few times and saw you occasionally around town - but I really miss our times together. You were a wonderful lady and I feel very blessed that I was part of your life - because you were a good part of mine. God Bless You Sweet Lady - and hugs to you Larry....I hope to see you tomorrow (work allowing).

“ *Our deepest prayers for the family of Jerri Green. A great gal, friend to all, lots of fun and always so helpful. Our friendship goes back many years. We regret we will not be able to share your day, but we will be in California for our son's wedding. We will remember our friendship with Jerri and all the classmates. You are in our prayers.
