

Jeremy David Craft

March 30, 1985 - June 19, 2019

Jeremy David Craft, 34 of Charlotte, MI, a talented artist who was very kind and loving to everyone he met, died unexpectedly June 19, 2019 at his home. He was born March 30, 1985 in Charlotte, one of three children to Gerald E. and Trina L. (Schlee) Craft. He attended Stockbridge High School, and later graduated from Potterville High School in 2004. Jeremy had a big heart, always putting everyone else first. His artistic talent helped him win an art contest for creating a logo for Big Red, Pepsi-Bottling Company. Jeremy loved drawing, enjoyed listening to music and was a fan of Korn, playing video games, writing, reading his Bible, and especially doing what was right. He worked 9 ½ years at the City of Potterville, and 1 year at the school as general maintenance. Quiet and reserved, Jeremy loved his family dearly and was heartbroken when his older brother, Jacob, died unexpectedly in July of 2018.

Jeremy is survived by his parents, Gerald and Trina Craft; sister, Christine Craft; aunts Wanda (James) Darrow, Tammy (Raymond) Poirier, Mary (Paul) Haase, Nancy (Brian) Sullivan, Judy (Phil) Twitchell; uncles, Dorian Schlee Jr., Vince (Kristine) Schlee, and Wayne (Steve) Schlee-Poirier; sister-in-law, Sarah Craft; and many cousins. “ I am terribly sad Jeremy was taken from us so soon. My heart is heavy knowing Jerry, Trina, and Christine are still grieving the loss of your brother and now you have left us. Hugs and shared tears for my family. Grandpa Eugene and I will plant a tree in hopes you and your brother Jacob will visit often. You boys were always sneaky tricksters hiding in grandpas orchard, I still hear Jeremys cheeky giggles and Jacobs belly laughs. Watch over our loved ones and Fly Free Young Angels.
