

Jerry Lee Davids

October 10, 1964 - December 17, 2021

Jerry Lee Davids, age 57 of Charlotte, a fella who was a kind and generous soul under his rough exterior, died December 17, 2021 in Lansing following a lengthy illness. Jerry was born October 10, 1964 to his parents Larry Lee Davids, Sr. and Marilyn Jean (Heikkila) Davids, in Charlotte. Jerry attended Charlotte High School graduating in 1983. Following graduation he enlisted in the U.S. Army.

Jerry was known to many as a strong willed, boisterous, "tell you what was on his mind in no uncertain terms" type of guy. Underneath his roughhewn exterior he had a generous streak that was always willing to help those in need. His work in the Lansing area was in manufacturing and drywall installation. He was a huge fan of Michigan State University sports. Above all he considered his family most important in his life. He was most proud of the fact that after a troubled past he was able to turn his life around.

Jerry is survived by his children Jody Copeland, Danielle (Cass) Escalante, and Jason (Heather) Davids, step-children Tiera (Ben) Spitler and Chrissy Fedewa; five grandchildren; his parents Larry Davids Sr, and Marilyn Stiles; and his siblings Larry (Janet) Davids Jr, Ricky Davids, Chad (Heather) Stiles, Connie (John) Hong and Chantel (Frank) Bonilla. He was predeceased by his infant daughter Samantha Marilyn Jean Davids; step-daughter Suzanne Fedewa, and grandparents Mary and Otto Heikkila and Florence and Bernard

Davids.

“ My dad was there for me right after the birth of my oldest, and was in town for the youngest. He walked me down the aisle and loved me unconditionally. My favorite memory is of going deep sea fishing with him, and loved being able to spend time with him and call him. Love you Dad.

“ Uncle Jerry I remember how caring you were, even though you acted so tough all the time, from the cards you always mailed us when we were little, the snacks you always got us to you personally loving when we all got together. We love you, and we will miss you! Rest In Peace and watch over all of us
