

Joan Marie Feldpausch

March 12, 1934 - February 3, 2018

Joan Marie Feldpausch, a vibrant and loving mother and friend, died peacefully on Saturday, February 3, 2018, in Lansing. Joan, 83, of Charlotte, was born March 12, 1934 in Lansing, the daughter of Raymond Clifford and Bertha Loretta (White) Hanes. As a 3-year-old, Joan sang with Lou Dougherty's Dance Band throughout the Lansing area, performing into her teen years. She found love at first sight when she met Theodore Donald Feldpausch at a shuffleboard. He asked if she would teach him the jitterbug, which led to a dancing date and, eventually, marriage. The two remained happily married until his death in 2013. Joan was skilled with numbers, managing the family finances and working as an accountant with Danielson-Schultz for over 10 years. She also devoted much of her time to volunteering for her community, serving as Secretary on the West Windsor School Board, donating to countless charities, and serving in many capacities as a member of the Charlotte Eagles Auxiliary #3552. Above all, Joan was a devoted friend, wife, and mother.

Joan is survived by her daughter, Denise (Robert) Senko; step-grandchildren, Randy (Chasity) Senko, Trevor Senko and Mindy Senko; and step-great-grandchildren, Lucas, Ashley and Bryce. She was predeceased by her husband, Theodore Donald Feldpausch.

“ Denise's mom was a wonderful lady. Both her and her husband treated me like family. Their house was the only one I was ever allowed to go to as a child and teenager for sleep overs. I was able to spend the night there a couple of years ago when I came for the high school reunion. She treated me the same , always welcoming and gracious, giving words of encouragement and praise. She will truly be missed. Love to Denise and family.
