“ John introduced me to Wisconsin Brats and my Boston Acoustics. He also brought a lot of good music to my parish. I wish he were here now to diagnose my Sony Amplifier problem. My palate, my ears and my heart thank you, John. SDG/JSB

“ John and I were in the Air Force band together. I have fond memories of that time with John. He was such a great musician, even back then, with eclectic tastes and very knowledgeable about a full range of musical styles. One of my memories is going to John's house to watch the pilot episode of the TV series "M*A*S*H." Last year, John sent me a couple MP3 files of the band that were made at the time we were both there. I cherish those recordings now more than ever. One note: I think the dates of John's service in the obituary are incorrect. I enlisted in late 1969, and I was already in the band when John arrived. He couldn't have been discharged in 1968. Also, this was a time when the enlistment period (and to be in the band meant he, like me, had enlisted, I'm pretty sure) was for four years. My impression was that John came to Rantoul, to the 505th band, straight out of basic training. That would have put his service in the same period as mine, 1969-1973 or so. My condolences to John's wife and his children. What a wonderful person and exceptional human being. Sherman Wilcox Professor Department of Linguistics University of New Mexico

“ Carole, I am Jim Kasprzak, trumpet player musician who has known and played with John since the early 1990s in the Greater Lansing area. I last worked with John for the "Follies" show at Riverwalk Theater last June. I remember John first as a real gentleman in every sense of the word. He consistently was kind and respectful of others. As I got to know John, he always was interested in knowing what was going on in my life. In music performances, John was one of the most tasteful percussionists that I have played with over a very long time. John always had the right touch, knowing just what was needed in music, no matter if it was big band, small jazz ensemble, concert band, chamber orchestra, or pit band for shows. The other musicians could rely on John to do his part from behind his drum set. And, the results were magical. Carole, I know that I have met you several times over the years. Please know that my wife and I will keep John in our prayers. We also will pray that God bring you and your family peace. God Bless. Jim Kasprzak

“ It is hard to believe you are gone John--we just started emailing each other last year. We were so close in grade school--Lincoln School by Taylor Park--you promised to come to the 50th and we could spend some time together and you wanted to know more about our effort to save our Taylor Park Pool. Now maybe you can help in a different way and our reunion will have to wait. God bless your family, my sympathy goes out to you all. Rest in Peace John, we will miss you. Nancy(Michalack)Smet

“ I always thought of John as a freind, much as anyone who ever met him in high school. He had no animosities about anyone and treated everyone with kindness. I didn't know how much I missed him until I saw this. I know he will be deeply missed by his family. He was always one of the guys who made high school seem like fun. I am sorry that I never had a chance to see him again. My sympathy and best wishes to his family.
