“ Dear Joan and Floyd, We were saddened by the passing of John who was loved by all who knew him. Though it is a great loss to all of us, we are comforted knowing his suffering is now over and he has gone to a happier life with his Saviour, Jesus Christ. We are making a contribution in his name to the American Cancer Society. With loving sympathy, Dave and Vi

“ Dear Josie, Uncle Floyd, Joan and Jerry, We are so sorry that John as left us at such an early age. We have many memories of our childhood together. Our family reunions will never be the same with out John where to tell stories on us all. We are so glad that we got a chance to visit with him in the hospital. We will have a mass said for John at St. Clement in Pellston. Love and prayers, Rod and Donna

“ My heart and payers go out to all of you. I have not seen John since he was a very young person. Your mom and dad and family meant a great deal to my husband and me when we just moved to Southern Michigan. As time went on with every day living time went so fast we lost track of families, which we live to regret God give you strength to face the coming days with the loss if a loved one. Your Cousin Roberta
