“ I am sure John will be sadly missed by his children the most, and I wish them well. Charlotte lost a dedicated volunteer that will be missed by many. I knew John through his work with the SIREN/Eaton Shelter over the past few years. He was always there to lend a hand whatever the task. I've heard from many people of his coaching abilities. What a worthy cause for such a worthy person. We all will miss you John.

“ Tammy, Heather, Jimmy and Annie, As we go through our lives with our children each age brings about new teammates, new adventures and new friends. When we met your family all those years ago on a t-ball field, a friendship formed that led beyond games to many fun times. Who knew it would extend to baseball and even into the men's league. When we think about the times we had with all of you, it brings a smile to our face and reminds us just how precious those memories are. Orlan truly enjoyed coaching with your dad and teaching you the game of baseball. His love along with your dads, was in the smiles in your and all of the kids faces as they succeeded in becoming great ball players and more so, great kids. We will never forget what a great friend John was to us an all of the laughs we had together. We will miss him but will cherish all of the memories we have. We wish to you that you turn to each other and your mom for love and support during this time of such loss. Take care and may God Bless You all and help you through this time.

“ I recently really got to know John from his tireless efforts at the SIREN shelter. Whenever there was an event...there was John always eager to help and make life easier for so many in need. It was John's actions that spoke volumes for the kind of man he was. His children were his life and he dedicated his time to them and their hopes and dreams. So many of us talk the word of giving John lived it. I am so sorry for your loss
