

John Carl Moncrief

June 11, 1941 - March 9, 2001

John Carl "Jack" Moncrief Sr., 59, of Charlotte, died Friday, March 9, 2001. Mr. Moncrief was born June 11, 1941 in Salem, New Jersey; the son of Daniel and Mary (Schmidt) Moncrief. He was preceded in death by his father (1972) and two sons, John C. Moncrief Jr. (1963) and John D. Moncrief (1991). Mr. Moncrief is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; his daughter, Deborah (Ray) Fluegeman and three granddaughters: Jessica, Stephanie and Danielle. He is also survived by his mother, Mary (Merlin Guilford); two brothers: William (Joanne) Moncrief of North Carolina and Daniel (Judy) Moncrief of Fennville; four sisters: Anna Mathis-Mullins (Jim) of Nashville, Katherine (Jerry) McCormick of Maine, Ruth (Gary) Cole of Escanaba and Kay (Carroll) Cole of Charlotte; as well as two brothers-in-law: Charles (Caron) Brown of Hayesville, North Carolina and David (Bev) Brown of Baltimore; one stepbrother, three stepsisters and several nieces and nephews. Visitation was held on Monday, March 12, 2001 from 3:00p.m. to 5:00p.m. and again from 7:00p.m. to 9:00p.m. at Pray Funeral Home. A funeral was held at 11:00a.m. on Tuesday, March 13, 2001 at Pray Funeral Home, with Pastor Jeff Bowman officiating. Mr. Moncrief was interred in Gresham Cemetery in Charlotte, Michigan.