“ Dear Bill and Helen, We were saddened to learn of your father's passing today in the County Journal. It seems that even though we know such events are inevitable in the natural flow of life, we are still never quite prepared for them when they occur. While we did not have the opportunity to know your father, I'm sure that you and your family will take comfort in remembering him with stories and photographs and laughter and tears, and in the knowledge that he is with those he has loved who have gone before him. Our most sincere condolences to you Helen, Bill and the Schneider family.

“ My Grandfather was a lovely man, who loved his family more than life itself. He loved my Grandmother Winifred, and would never leave her side. He will be missed by those who knew him. But his memories and stories will live on for generations to come.
