

Justin Sage Stockwell

August 31, 1977 - February 23, 2024

Justin Sage Stockwell of Dansville, MI known for his quirky personality and endless supply of dad jokes, died unexpectedly February 23, 2024 at the age of 46. Justin was born in Detroit on August 31, 1977 to Joyce Sage. He learned to rely on God with a strong faith, which helped him overcome many adversities and care for others with an open heart. To say that Justin was a croc lover would be an understatement, since he wore them all the time. Some of the other things that he loved included cooking (he was a self-proclaimed foodie), making Christmas rock candy, everything Harry Potter (as a "Potter-Head"), and playing PokeMon Go as he travelled the countryside hunting for PokeMon.

Justin is survived by his wife, Lenna Stockwell; daughter, Zoe Stockwell; five grandchildren, Keegan, Melody, Andrew, Demitri, and Blair; parents, Joyce Sage and Raymond Stockwell; brothers, David and Thomas Stockwell; and niece and nephew, Bennett and Emilee. He was predeceased by his grandparents, Richard and Marilyn Sage.

Friends are encouraged to support Justin's family by sharing memories on his Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. A private family memorial service will be held in March, and a public Celebration of Justin's life is being planned for Summer of 2024. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ Such a tragedy... a fine fellow. Great sense of humor. All of our conversations were on the light side. I wasn't aware that he was silently suffering. I wish I'd known him better. Rest easy young man...your mind is at ease. Save a spot at the table for me.
