“ I just found out about Karen's homecoming to be with Jesus! Her and I became friends at the end of January of this year. I so enjoyed those once a week meetings we had when she would meet me at my church to come pick up her jewelry as I was working. We had some wonderful, sweet chats about our family and Jesus! She is so missed in my life! Praying for all who love her...

“ I am bereft at the loss of my longest friend. In my baby book my mother wrote that my very first friend was Karen, who lived 2 houses away at the time! We shared our first apartment and she was in my wedding. Our first children were born weeks apart. Throughout junior and senior high we were always together and making our own kind of trouble! Over the last 5 years I visited her 3 times from Florida, missing the covid year. I know how much she loved her family and her pups and I hope they bring each other some comfort. My dearest friend fought many illness battles and was so disheartened by the state of the country these days. Now she has left that behind and is with her beloved parents and sister, dancing with Angel's. Sending all my love to those she has left behind. I'll miss you every day, my sister.
