Diane is our sister-in-law and has been a really great friend. She was a very private person and didn't talk much about her private life. We had many great times together when my brother, Terry was alive. We was quite close after Terry passed away. We had holidays with DAD n Helen Wellman, Patty n Rindy Cross, Paula Thompson. We'd get together and let our dogs play together and visit. She was a great friend !!!! We kind of lost though went we moved to Florida, tried to get her to come down and visit us, but she always said can't leave my animals that long. Will always remember how good she was to my brother. Can only believe she'll be happy she's with him now. R.I.P. my Sis Diane (Karen)

“ Diane was the first person I met when I came to the USA. She loved Allison and would stay with me whenever she could. We were Sister-in-laws but more like Sisters as she always said she wanted one. She came to visit York P.A a few years ago and we got together, it was like old times. I know you fought a long and tough battle, Diane, R.I.P. Love you.
