Karin Suzanne Avery, a loving, loyal, and passionate, daughter, sister, and partner, died Sunday, November 17, 2019 after a long battle with Huntington's Disease, a disease she fought up to the very end. Karin was an accomplished pool player and also enjoyed a cold beer. Karin was not able to have children of her own and this led to a strong love for animals, her cats and dogs were her babies.

Family and friends meant the world to Karin, she always greeted you with a smile and a big hug. Karin is survived by her significant other, Brian Burke; father, Chester (Tess) Wright; sisters, Michele (Ray) Johnson, and Amy (Scott Brainard) Wright; nieces and nephews, Jennifer (Remo), Joseph (Katherine), Tyler, Justin (Paige), India, Ava, and Kaitlyn; 3 great nieces and nephews; and her beloved dog, Whitley. She was predeceased by her mother Ella Wright; and nephew, Jacob Carroll.

I absolutely love this; it's beautiful - Karin is beautiful and you can see her passion in every picture . I will miss her Spark, and her Sparkle; and I'll always love her.

Karin - Please hug and kiss Jacob and mom for me. This would be her comment to my request with a silly face that always made me laugh - "YA THINK I WON'T??!!" KARIN - You're beautiful, smart and funny and I will always miss you.

Until we meet again Karin.

Love Always,

Michele

“ Karin, where do I start? We shared so much in the 5 or 6yrs we spent together. Most of it laughing, or me watching you in amazement of your laugh, the honesty of it, from the soul, ear to ear smile and gutbusting laughter that was contagious! A 112lbs of dynamite that go off at any given time, usually warranted and addressed accordingly with pizzazz. We heard music together that to most was just background noise but with a glance, they became the background noise.

Wed spend hours, days, weeks trying to figure out lyrics to our favorite songs. Life In the fast Lane I dont think we ever agreed to that one verse. One thing we agreed on, we lived it!

We fed off each other's relentless pursuit, of what Im still wondering myself. For awhile I was thinking we could have done things a little more cautious or reserved, ha ha if we we were 2 different people maybe. I had the time of my life with you Karin, our own language, our nicknames, the way we let music drift us away, to a place we wanted to be, and it was wonderful and I thank you for that and for you not letting anybody get in the way of who you are. We always said wed end up together someday, I want the volume on high when I see you again Ok? Just somethin in my eye that's all. Thanks for everything !!

“ I would not have had the pleasure of knowing this beautiful woman had it not been for the fact that her equally beautiful sister Michele, is one of my best friends. Karin, I will never forget how you would grab me and fiercely hug me whenever I saw you, smiling that beautiful smile of yours! Always eager to talk! Your sassy, feisty, spunky nature was apparent to all! You loved my daughter Kaylee and she loved you. Life is so unfair that you had to fight this horrible disease but you did so with such strength and courage. May you rest in peace now sweetie, and may all those left behind find comfort in knowing that you have been released from the torments of your disease. I'll miss you Karin.

“ She called me "Daddy". I was daddy right after she spoke her first words. I was daddy as she grew up. As some children grow, they become "embarrassed" to use the term daddy. They begin to use the term "Dad". I guess it sounds more grown up. Karin called me daddy her entire life. The last time I saw her in June of this year, as we prepared to leave Karin and Brian, I bent to hug and kiss her. Normally at this phase of her affliction, as many of you know, it was very difficult to understand her words when she spoke. However, this time, she reached and pulled me down close to her and said clearly, "I love you daddy", then kissed and hugged me tightly. I suspect at times when she was with her friends, she called me everything but daddy, but that is okay. In whatever way she may have disrespected daddy, she more than made up for with her kindness, inspiration, love for her family, and many other characteristics that she possessed. She is one of a kind! Our loss is Heaven's gain! I love you Babe.

Karin was a very special sister-in-law for a few years when she was a Trowbridge. We had very many special memories playing pool, bowling and just sitting around drinking a cold one. My wife Carmen and I visited her several times in her final months and enjoyed her company very much. She will always be a special part of my life and memories. Rest in peace

“ My dear friend...I can't share my favorite memory because there are so many that make me smile. I respected most your deep fiery passion for what ever you set your mind to. We shared the love of similar music....and enjoyed many concerts together, those stories often started with “remember the time we”....:) Your naughty little giggle and smile when we were up to no good. Your beautiful smile, heartfelt laugh and genuine drive for adventure. Rest now my dear...until we meet again. Love you always. Arlene
