

Kathy K. Shepard-Hussey

August 6, 1952 - December 25, 2019

Kathy K. Shepard-Hussey, a loving, kind and devoted Christian, died Wednesday, December 25, 2019 in Ann Arbor. Kathy, 67, was born August 6, 1952 in Lansing, MI to Edwin A. and Ruth (Campbell) Shepard Sr. She devoted her life to serving others, she worked as an eldercare giver and housekeeper and in an eldercare home as a caregiver, and enjoyed being a homemaker. Kathy was a great cook and baker. Attending church was a strong passion for Kathy, and she loved volunteering in the church nursery. She also adored her pets, especially her dog George. Hobbies that Kathy enjoyed were traveling to fairs and flea markets, working in her flower gardens, caring for her house plants and spending time with her family. Kathy leaves a legacy behind of being faithful to God. She was a very strong and independent woman.

Kathy is survived by children, Chance and William Hussey; her grandchildren; loving friend and significant other who she had deep admiration for, Karl Kempf; siblings, Floyce Abernathy, Mary (Roger) Fuller. Kathy was preceded in death by her parents, infant sister, Sandra K. Shepard; infant brother, Keith E. Shepard; brother, Edwin A. Shepard Jr.

*I met Kathy at the hospital! We became fast friends. She was our housekeeper for multiple years. When my Mom had to stay with us she was always a friendly face for Mom to look forward to seeing! She was a tough girl who knew what she wanted and endured more health issues than anyone should have had to. 😞. She faced them all with unwavering faith. She loved to enter drawings and seemed to win her share! She and Kara had fun going to Sr Center Bingo!!
RIP. Kathy til we meet again.*
