

Kent Taylor Romanczuk

November 9, 1957 - February 11, 2025

Kent Taylor Romanczuk, a man who was always willing to help anyone in need, died unexpectedly on Tuesday, February 11, 2025. Kent, 67, of Bellevue, was born on November 9, 1957 in Lansing, the son of Walter and Carol (Linder) Romanczuk. Kent was a proud carpenter, and owned and operated Taylors Remodeling for many years before he retired in 2017. In 1994 he married the love of his life, Tina Brangenburg and together they spent the next 30 years creating lasting memories. He will be remembered by all for being a generous man who enjoyed riding motorcycles, playing poker, tinkering in the garage, and watching the History Channel. Above all his family brought him the most enjoyment in life.

Kent is survived by his wife, Tina; children, Taylor Romanczuk, Krystal Sheldon, and Travis Bruce; grandchildren, Allison and Neveah Ballard, Anthony, Braylon, Carter, and Drake Kinney, Haven and Axel Hicks; and several friends and extended family members. He was predeceased by his parents; and his brother, Gary Romanczuk.
