

Kristine Kay Henrys

December 25, 1959 - January 23, 2025

Kristine "Kris" "Grams" Henrys (Wyble), the best woman on the planet who would do anything for her family, went to be with Jesus on Thursday, January 23, 2025, after a short courageous battle with cancer. Kris, 65, of Charlotte, was born on Christmas Day in 1959 in Lansing, MI, the daughter of Norman Henrys and Dixie Hanks. She graduated from Charlotte High School class of 1978. On July 31, 1982, Kris married Thomas Wyble and together spent the next 27 years building their family and creating memories. Over the years Kris worked as a bus driver, as a farmer's wife, but most importantly as a homemaker to take care of her family. She devoted her life to the Lord and was a very proud born again Christian. Many will remember Kris for her contagious laugh, her recognizable whistle, her beautiful smile, and her love for others.

Kris was a jack of all trades, she enjoyed woodworking, doing arts and crafts, tending to her flowers and gardens, camping, spending time on the beach in Pentwater, and horseback riding. Her grandchildren meant the world to her. Grams could often be found playing Roblox with them, going on shopping adventures, playing games, watching movies, and just being in their presence. Above all she was proud that she taught her family how to love the Lord.

Kris is survived by her daughters, Lacy (Rico) Fuentes and Jamie (Justin) VanAlstine; seven grandchildren, Jaycee, Jayden, Carter, Drew, Maliah, and Harper; bonus son, Brandon Schultz, and his sons, Camden and Beckett; step-mom, Loraine Henrys; siblings, Kimberly Baker, Sherri (Mike) Guerin, Heather (Steve) Hoyer, Kevin (Pam) Henrys, and Keith Henrys; many loved nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, and extended family members and friends; best friend, Lorrie Tate; and her beloved dogs, Hank and Rodney. She was predeceased by her husband, Thomas Wyble; grandson, Kylen Rico; sister, Tonja Ballmer; mother, Dixie; and her father, Norman.

Friends are encouraged to support Kris' family by attending services or sharing memories on her Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. Visitation is Saturday, February 1, 2025, from 2-4:00 p.m. and 6-8:00 p.m. at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte. Funeral Services are Sunday, February 2, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. at Pray Funeral Home with Pastor Matt Rohde officiating. Burial will take place on Monday, February 3 at 11:00 a.m. at Kalamo Hillside Cemetery. The funeral will be webcast so you may watch it from any computer, smartphone, or mobile device that has internet access. Go to www.prayfuneral.com, click on Kris' tribute, then click on Photos and Videos from your computer (or Media from your smart phone). The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ I did not really know Kristine, except for the stories of the heart shared by Jamie over the years. Mom/grandma was so much more in the eyes of Jamie. She was an angel by all means, keeping the family wrapped in love every day. I was always envious of that relationship that was so warm and tight. God bless Kris and all that are left behind who will miss you every day. 💕🙏💕🙏💕🙏💕🙏

“ It was such a honor and pleasure for Kristine to be my daughter if only for a short time. She lit up a room when she walked in and always wanted to help someone. She was my guardian angel when I was in the hospital for six months, she never missed coming to see me, to help me and help the family. Grandpa John was so thankful for all that she did to make all the problems go away, and the support she gave him. Thank you, Jamie and Laci for still letting me be your grandma, it's an honor. Love and God's peace be on each of your families members. Grandma Judy
