I am sorry for all those left behind to grieve such a young life. There are no words that help, none that console. Lean on each other, help each other to survive. And cherish every moment with the ones you love. Angel, sweetie... my soul aches for you and yours. The pain is unbearable. We may not know peace in this life, but we know love and strength. Allow yourself to breakdown when you need to.

“ I met Kyle within the last year or so. He was a giving soul. Always looking out for those around him. It seemed as if he didn't have a thing, but what he did have he would happily put in the hands of a young child just to see them smile and hear them giggle. I will miss your waif like smile coming from your big eyes. I pray for your family now, and I ask Jesus to send the Holy Spirit to comfort them and wrap them in His peace beyond understanding. Lord, give them that knowledge of Your divine peace and grace. In Jesus mighty name, Amen.
