

Larry Sevitts

August 6, 1937 - August 19, 2024

On August 19, 2024 with his loving wife at his side, Larry L. Sevitts "The kid from Morenci," lost a long battle with cancer. Larry had a long and full life, he was born August 6, 1937 in Morenci to Leroy and Anne (Meyers) Sevitts. After serving in the Navy, Larry attended Adrian College where he met his lifelong love, Susan. They had three children together. Earning his Master's Degree in Education, Larry went on to become a school principal. His career in education went from Flint to Albion, and finally Charlotte where he eventually opened the Sport Center to enjoy his true passion, golf, and he retired from this business in 1999. Most golfers are lucky to get one hole-in-one in a lifetime, Larry had five!

“ Larry was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at Adrian College. I am fortunate to call him brother as we were brothers in SAE. Larry was an excellent baseball player at Adrian College and a very fun fraternity brother. He will be missed by many. A great sense of humor and a positive attitude were great attributes. I played many rounds of golf with Larry and he was a joy to be around. Phi Alpha Brother Larry! Rest in peace! Tom and Sharron Pridgeon
