

Lawrence Hale

July 2, 1965 - January 4, 2021

Lawrence Douglas Hale, 56, of Nashville, died unexpectedly on January 4, 2021 in Ionia. Larry was born July 2, 1964, in Charlotte, the son of Melvin Douglas and Carene Jane (Rowden) Hale. He graduated from Olivet High School where he played football. He later earned his mechanic license from ITT Tech. Most recently, he worked on the line at Ventra Ionia Main. Larry enjoyed Shirley's Chuckwagon Café in Nashville, and reminiscing on many years of camping trips up north.

Larry is survived by his son, Eric Hale; sisters, Brenda Hale-Taylor and Tammy (Pete) Bryner; and nephews, Charles (Nicole) Bryner, David (Amanda) Bryner, and Chance Taylor. He was predeceased by his parents.

Friends are encouraged to support Larry's family. A memorial service will take place this summer, when outdoor services resume. If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to the American Diabetes Association. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Larry on his Tribute Page at www.PrayFuneral.com. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

Tribute Wall

JG

“ He was a good person, good neighbor and will be missed, RIP Larry.

---

JG - January 20, 2021 at 02:08 PM

LW

“ I will always lar making me laugh he loved the out doors and ribbing me he was so much fun to be around he wasent only my best friend but more like a brother. You were a very smart man buddy. And I was and am proud to call you friend I will miss you more than you will ever no love ya buddy from your best friend Larry winchell prayers are with you all

---

Lawrence winchell - January 09, 2021 at 12:26 PM