“ I met Larry when I was in grade school. He was my sister's boyfriend, and later husband, which gave me the privilege of being "Aunt P". One of his favorite things to do was tease me relentlessly. At sixty something, he still cracked himself up at every opportunity to call me "Snookie", a childhood nick name. He took such pleasure in those opportunities. I'll always remember that joyful smile. Doni, my thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. Larry was fortunate to have you in his life to love and care for him. Rob, you wear your Dad's image proudly. Least we forget him, we only have to look to you. Love and prayers to all the family.....Paulette
