“ My last conversation with Linda was one that I'll never forget. It would have been so understandable if she had been consumed with her own needs, but that just wasn't Linda. She was far more concerned about Russ and her family, and in particular, Russ's desire to help her. Being the independent lady that we all know and love, accepting help wasn't something that came easily. Yet- she was trying to think of ways that Russ could help her because she knew that's what he wanted, and needed, to be doing. The depth of their love was evident. My deepest sympathy to all who loved this amazing lady.

“ Linda & I shared many good years together at farm bureau insurance. I admired her intellect and especially her warmth and sincerity. We had a great circle of women friends who laughed a lot together and provided support to one another. Linda reached out to me this past Christmas with a wonderful "family" photo taken at the Humane Society. She knew it would give me a needed lift. It also opened the door for us to start getting together for drinks and dinner this winter. Always....always.....Linda was smiling, upbeat, interested in others, and a classy lady all the way. My heart breaks for Russ and Linda's family. Know that she will be forever loved and missed by the "chicks" who shared so many memories with her!

“ Dear Russ and Family, I am sorry for your loss. Linda was an amazing woman and such a great friend. I worked with Linda for years and came to know her very well. Linda cared so much about doing what was best and giving all she could no matter what she was working on. She loved you all so much and shared such great stories. She was so proud of all of you.

“ Linda was a strong woman with a big heart. Linda never feared doing what she thought was right nor did she hesitate to tell you what that was. When I first lost my job I received so many great phone calls from some of the best people in the world, but the one that meant the most to me was from Linda. Linda reminded me what was really important. She said she would give anything for better health and to live for years more with the love of her life - Russ. She said she could handle anything but leaving Russ. Linda's honesty and her frankness touched my heart. Thank you Linda!

“ Linda, I will never forget your friendship and especially the time when you came over to show me how to can tomatoes and make salsa. We drank wine, laughed a lot, and managed to be very productive with our canning. :) I will never forget that day, and I will continue to make your salsa with Travis and Austin. We even grow our own tomatoes and peppers now, and I think of you when doing so. Love, Sharon
