

Lisa Ann Myers

August 1, 1957 - January 24, 2022

Lisa Myers, award winning artist, of Rives Junction, died January 24, 2022.

Lisa, 64, was born August 1, 1957 in Coldwater to Lyle Vernon and Sally Joan (Elliget) Loose. Lisa held very dear her work with the non-profit animal rescue/wildlife rehabilitation establishment. She was very talented and proud that she was able to carry on a family talent with ceramics. Hobbies included kayaking, horseback riding, watching movies, trips to the U.P. and she loved spending time with her grandchildren. According to her family and friends who knew her well, Lisa had two speeds: high or off. Her strong faith led her to be a certified correctional chaplain. She was full of wit and good humor and very loving.

Lisa is survived by her husband, Keven; children, Ian Spooner, Ryan Parker, Amber (John) Krause, Eric (Eveline) Grigsby; 8 grandchildren; siblings, Kim (Cindy) Loose, Lonnie Nutt, Dale (Lagatha) Nutt. She was predeceased by her parents, and brother, Denver Nutt.

“ I am so sorry Kevin. I remember when we first met, at Big Ticket Festival so many years ago. We were in line waiting to get in, I had my foot on my scooter and we started talking about my accident and hers. Then we saw each other at many BTF's, then you started attending New Life Fellowship Church where I also attended. I will keep you in my prayers, Lisa is now resting in the arms of her Father!
