

Lois May Miller

October 5, 1926 - May 14, 2015

Lois May Miller, 88, of Charlotte died May 14, 2015. The daughter of George and Florence (Moore) McDonald, Lois was born October 5, 1926 in Pellston, MI. She moved to Charlotte in 1941, and married U.S. Army WWII veteran, Ralph David Miller on May 10, 1943. Lois worked at Carter's Grocery Store in the bakery for many years, and took pride in making beautiful wedding cakes. She loved watching Detroit Tigers baseball, sewing her own clothes, crafting, and knitting, and loved spending time with her beloved dog Billy.

Lois is survived by her sons Ralph David Miller Jr. and Darryl Miller; 5 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren, and brother Albert (Marcia) McDonald. She was predeceased by her husband Ralph David Miller, Sr., in 1991; daughter Priscilla Mahon; siblings Earl, Ford, George, David and Robert Lee McDonald, and Illa Cander.

A private family service is planned for a later date. The family suggests memorial contributions to Eaton Community Palliative Care. Family and friends are encouraged to share remembrances and condolences online in Lois' Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com.

Tribute Wall

RM

“ Rest in peace Mom.

Ralph Miller - January 19, 2022 at 09:38 AM

MS

“ Our hearts and thoughts are with you at this difficult time. We hope your memories give you peace, comfort, and smiles forever. Love, Mary Sue & Jeff

Mary Sue - May 19, 2015 at 04:10 AM