August 31, 1954 - June 5, 2023

Lois was born August 31, 1954 in Lansing to Irvin and Joyce (Parks) Covell. She worked at GM for 30 years before she retired in 2007. Independent, head-strong, and funny are some of the words her family used to describe her.

“ I first met Lois and her family when we went to elementary school together in Lansing. When my family moved to Charlotte for the 1967 school year I was so surprised to see Lois there. I couldn't wait to get home and tell my parents because they also knew Lois' entire family. My thoughts are her entire family. I know she will be very happy to finally once again see her Grandpa Joe whom she loved dearly

“ I'm really going to miss Lois. She was a good friend of mine and to many others. She drove for the Amish and brought in different kinds of produce to sell to us, for them. She sewed doll clothes for Christmas dolls. Lois was a part of our Auction Sight and would donate what she didn't sell for others who were in need. All who knew Lois loved her for the giving and friendly self she was. Heart felt sympathy to her sister, Mary Jo who cared for Lois and for Lois' grandson.

I'm lighting a red candle for Lois' red hair. She had her own ways, but she was a giving person. She enjoyed driving for the Amish and would bring their produce in for those who needed it in our community of Charlotte. Lois was a hard worker. She also sewed doll clothes for Christmas Kiddies. I am sorry for the family's loss.
