

Luke Perry Jewell

April 7, 1992 - February 28, 2021

Luke Perry Jewell, 28 of Charlotte, a very kind-hearted and reliable man, died unexpectedly February 28, 2021. Luke grew up in the Bellevue area and graduated from Bellevue High School class of 2010. He worked for the last ten years at Kish Industries as a paint batch maker. In his spare time, Luke enjoyed hunting, fishing, gaming with friends, playing cards (especially Cribbage), playing golf, collecting knives, bonfires with friends and family, and there are fun stories of "blowing things up." He loved his son, Liam, more than life itself and they enjoyed many Nerf gun wars together. His family describe Luke as amazingly kind-hearted, stubborn, and always willing to help, and acknowledge he was a great father, son, brother, fiancé and incredibly reliable friend.

Luke is survived by his mother and father, Julie (Knipp) and Allen Phillips; biological dad, William Jewell Jr.; son, Liam Jewell; fiancée, Jessica Brzezinski and her daughter, Calie; siblings, Allen Phillips II, Amanda (Anthony) Pitcher, Alicia Phillips, Rose Jewell (Brent Maly); half-siblings, Alicia Bowen, and William Jewell III; grandmothers, Paula Kelly, Virginia Bolton, Joyce Phillips, and Rosemary Landers; nieces and nephews, Avery, Seth, Zeria, Madelynn, and Bella; and his best friend in the world, Kevin Eggerstedt. He was predeceased by his grandpa Joe Kelly and grandpa Lloyd Phillips.

Friends are encouraged to support Luke's family by attending services or sharing memories on Luke's Tribute Page at www.PrayFuneral.com.
