September 10, 1965 - June 18, 2018

Lynn Beverly Redfield, 52, of Charlotte, died Monday, June 18, 2018 at her home. Lynn was born September 10, 1965 in Lansing, the daughter of Alfred Paul and Cathleen Diane (Beals) Murray. She graduated from Charlotte High School, where she played saxophone in the band and was a cheerleader. Lynn worked as a medical assistant at Hayes Green Beach Hospital in Charlotte, as well as various jobs in construction and housekeeping. In her spare time, she enjoyed cooking and baking, playing sports, painting, and collecting antiques. She also looked forward to time in the outdoors riding motorcycles and fishing. She loved her pets throughout her life, especially her pony, Princess. Above all, Lynn loved her family.

Lynn is survived by her fiancé, Wiley Redfield; sons, Matthew Jenks and Michael Jenks; daughter, Lindsey Wardell; father, Alfred Murray; 4 grandchildren; siblings, Kitty Carmoney and Alfred Murray, Jr.; and friend, Terry Neff. She was predeceased by her mother, Cathleen Beals.

“ So sorry to hear of Lynn's passing. Please accept my deepest condolences for your family's loss. I will always have fun-filled memories of Lynn and our friendship especially during our Junior and Senior years of high school. Going to athletic games, and hanging out after school. Picking on her little brother Fred by giving him dutch rubs. He would always punch me and call me the "Gooch". The Gooch was a Bully character from a kids 70's show called Different Strokes. Cruising the gut of Charlotte on Friday and Saturday nights in the god awful hand painted green Volvo. We had to put a stick in the gas tank, because the gas gauge didn't work.

She was my little cousin. I loved aunt Cathy so much, and Kitty and Lynn. Her Dad Fred was always good to me, He and Cathy met in the Marine Corps. Little Lynn was so cute, and I wish I had had the opportunity to know them better. It seems I have outlived all my little cousins, and I don't know how. She was a sweet little girl.

“ Lynn and I were best friends from elementary school through 8th grade, when my family moved away. She always called me "Taller" and I called her "Smaller." We spoke on the phone here and there, but lost touch over time. I had tried to find her recently to let her know that through my genealogy research, I found out that we are cousins, but I couldn't seem to find her. I wish we had been able to reconnect, as I remember her so fondly! Rest in peace, Smaller!

“ Lynn and I were very good friends in jr high and sr high. We saw each other on occasion throughout the years but only in passing. I will remember how much fun she was and how friendly she was. She had a smile that would light up a room and a laughter that was infectious. May she Rest In Peace, you will be missed!

“ Lynn was a very kind hearted soul. She embrassed me into this family from day one. Lynn loved crafting and we could talk forever about ideas. And could have endless conversations about our kids. I loved it when she would tell me stories of she and her siblings growing up and laugh till we hurt. She was one of a kind , and will be missed dearly. I love you Lynn!! ❤️
