“ We are rejoicing that Margaret is now enjoying the perfection promised by our Savior! Thanks be to God! We are also praying for the peace and comfort that only our Heavenly Father can provide to family and friends in adequate measure as you remember the life of and experience the grieving process regarding the loss of Margaret. My father passed into Heaven's Glory over the summer and so the happy rememberings and also the feelings of loss are known by us first-hand...as are Our Lord's open arms and patient ears. God's Blessing to each of you.

“ Margaret was truly loved and cared for. She brought many smiles to our faces with her sense of humor. My fondest memory will always be just after her hair was done. She would come down the Boardwalk five inches taller with a brilliant white smile. I would call her our movie star and she would beam in "fake" modesty! We will miss her and Linda. God Bless your family for allowing us to have been a part of your lives.
