“ I have so many memories with my Aunt Marie. She was sassy, stubborn, and always made me laugh. From having garage sales, to going to visit her at her house with my grandma and grandpa, always so pleased to have the company. She loved to remind me of the time when I was maybe 4 or 5, peeling potatoes in my grandparent’s deck and I said “Do YOU know how to peel potatoes?” Or when I was younger and she dropped some food on her shirt during lunch, she said “I hope no one saw that.” And I said “I DID!” So many moments of laughter and love. And of course me always wanting to know when Pam was coming too. “I miss Pam” sending love to all today. I love you, Aunt Marie! Can’t wait to peel potatoes together again one day!

“ My deepest sympathy to Pam, Dick, and family. Marie was just the most sweetest woman and even though I had never seen her in person, only through e-mail I knew her, I always felt I've known her forever. She differently had a special place in my heart. Rest in peace sweet friend. With love. Tracy Holt

“ Aunt Marie was always so friendly, and caring. Her last email on her birthday she said she didn't feel any older. She was so independent. I appreciated her sympathies she sent in the death of my brother Orville Jr., and her sentence But guess when it's our time we go. So true. Praying for Peace and Comfort for the family in this time of sadness. She will surely be missed and thought of often.

“ Grandma Gee was a monument of strength, patience and reserve. She was steady with everything she did...even keeled. She was very patient...I was a wild child and she was a magical element that could calm me and get me to do the right thing. Her cooking was out of this world, made with love would be a serious understatement. Eat her daughter or grand daughter's cookies and you'll know what I mean...they carry on her legacy exceptionally well. She was warm, loving and caring and if you were a wild child she could be stern...well cause you deserved it (speaking from experience) and somehow with love (hence the calming effect). She cared about everyone. If you were in her life you were deeply loved and it showed. Our love for her will never pass as her love for us will always live on. One of the greatest pillars of love and strength that helped shape my world and I am forever grateful.

“ God speed Aunt Marie. Your presence will be missed. I can close my eyes and reflect on our many camping trips, wipping the motor home along the highways. It seamed every time we stopped by for a visit, she was making cookies. Always involved in the funny hat contest. Sending prayers we will miss your smile. Love you, Aunt Marie, Connie Steadman

“ I met Marie at Meijer in Charlotte, the first time I waited on her I fell in love with her she was a very sweet lady. Marie would always tell me when her daughter Pam would be in town she brought her in the store to meet me. For my birthday one year she gave me a plaque that said (Friend's Are Special and You Are A Special Friend). I have it in my kitchen I look at it everyday and think of Marie. Rest In Peace my special friend. Love you. 🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏❤️ Phyllis Mathias Rhoades.
