

Marion Louise Jackson

August 3, 1940 - May 22, 2007

Marion Louise Jackson born August 4, 1940 in Centerline, MI died May 22, 2007 in Charlotte, MI at the home of her sister after a brave fight with scleroderma and pulmonary hypertension. Marion moved to Fairbanks, AK in 1968 and worked for the Culinary Union in several restaurants and bars. She met her husband and best friend, Jack Jackson, in 1972. They married and moved from Fairbanks, AK to Central, AK in 1976, where they lived until Jack died in 1997. Marion moved back to Fairbanks shortly after that time to be closer to friends and family after spending a winter in Cheboygan, MI with her sister, Carol Soumis. She was preceded in death by her husband, Jack Jackson, her parents, Leon, Lillian and Toni (step-mother) Charboneau, brother Donald Charboneau, sister Carol Soumis, and brother-in-law Dennis Hawkes. She is survived by brothers Harvey (Delores) and Ralph (Sherran) Charboneau, both of Cheboygan, MI, sisters Gayle Hawkes of Cheboygan and Janice (Gary) Shall of Charlotte, MI, step-son Kirk (Thursha) Jackson of Fairbanks, AK, step-daughter, Kim Steiks of Ninnilchek, AK, 3 grandson, Garrett and Jake Jackson and Ian McArdle, and she was the favorite aunt to many nieces and nephews. Marion requested no services. Donations may be made to the Scleroderma Foundation. Email condolences to the family of Marion Louise (Charboneau) Jackson
