“ Mark was the best brother anyone could ask for. He had a great sense of humor. Always trying to surprise you. I love him with all my heart. There are so many funny stories and pranks he pulled of course I am the serious one. But that was him..He always there to help if you needed anything. He had so much love to give to family and friends. He loved having dogs. He would have more if he could..He had a lot of health issues but tried to not let it get him down..He was gone too soon. Miss our 2 to 3 calls a day, checking in he called it..Love and miss you my dear brother.

“ I first met Mark when we moved to Charlotte in June of 1990,as we bought the house directly across the street from him. We instantly became friends as we both had common interests, especially hunting. In our 34 year friendship we became bonded to each other like brother's. It did not take long for him to be nicknamed Willie(short for his last name) as every time you called the house you were alway's asked which one to talk to with two Mark's in the same house. I have many cherished memories with Willie, Hunting the Snowmobile's, Fireworks War's(shooting them at each other from across the street) to the practical jokes we played on each other. the most recent this year(my yard lined up with pink flamingo's) when i came home from work on my birthday. Willie had a great sense of humor. I will Dearly Miss You Willie and all of the great times we had together. You are forever in my heart brother. Until we meet again, may you rest in peace.....Todd Trowbridge Sr. AKA (Toad)

“ I was married to and divorced from Marks mother's cousin, Larry Wilson (who passed away over 2 years ago). I have not seen Mark for many years but I know he must have been a wonderful man, as both his parents and sister, Carol are and were the sweetest and loving people you would ever hope to meet! My heart, love and prayers go out to Carol and his family!!
