“ After a heartfelt conversation with my very ill Dad last night, I realize that I was remiss in my previous condolence post. He shared many stories with me about "Little Marty" all filled with love & laughter. Uncle Jeff loved his nephew and was very saddened to hear of his passing. He sends his thoughts, prayers & sympathy to Marty's family.

“ After a truly meaningful visit with my ill father tonight, I realized how remiss I was when leaving my previous condolence. Marty's Uncle Jeff loved him very much and was deeply saddened to hear of his passing. Tonight my father shared many wonderful stories filled with laughter and love about "Little" Marty. He sends his love & prayers.

“ Jan and Family - We just heard of Marty's passing today and I know I can speak for all three of us when I say that our hearts are very heavy with sadness of this news. From the first moment the unknown "snowman" plowed our driveway until the final time the two of you drove out of our driveway on your adventures we have had a special place in our hearts for Marty. He was one of the most caring, loving, hardworking men we have ever met. We will never forget everything Marty helped us with through the years, a better neighbor then we could ever hope to have. Loving thoughts to the family at this time and know we miss Marty deeply.

“ *Janice and Family, Reva and I wish to express our deepest sentiments at your loss. Martin was a great inspiration around the campground, wishing to help whoever and whenever. Even when he was in the early stages of his "flu", he came out to help me with a busted water pipe. When he was feeling weak, he came over to see the "Haunted Pavilion" on the campground, just because he knew we'd spent a lot of time on it (I wasn't aware of how weak he was, he always had his ups and downs). He truly cared about people, and just wanted to help whenever possible and however possible. He will be greatly missed!!! Our prayers go out to all of you. We'll see you soon Janice. “ So very sorry to hear the sad news of Marty's passing. I wasn't fortunate enough to spend a lot of time with him, but when I did I always enjoyed his company. He was my cousin & I loved and respected him. I also know how much his Aunt Ethel loved him. My heart is breaking for you all. You are in my prayers. Love, Janice
