

Mary Kathleen Shaull

May 7, 1942 - June 6, 2023

Mary Kathleen Shaull, 81, of Potterville, died peacefully on Tuesday, June 6, 2023. Mary was born May 7, 1942 in Charlotte, the daughter of Elvin and Lelajean (Hawley) Foote. She graduated from Potterville High School before going to work at Les'Drive-In, where she met her husband, Robert Shirley Shaull, Jr. They soon married and started their family. Mary then went to work as a server at the Luncheonette until they closed. She spent a few years in childcare before going to the restaurant business at Moon's Caf^e, where she worked until they closed, at which time she started at Joe's Potterville Inn. She worked as a cook at Joe's for 27 years, retiring in 2007. Mary was a member of the VFW Auxiliary alongside her mother. She loved having lunch with her sister, Joan, and annual family trips to Frankenmuth. Mary was especially fond of snow, which earned her the nickname "Snow Queen."

Mary is survived by her son, David Shaull; sister, Joan Montgomery; niece, Jean Montgomery; and nephew, Johnnie Montgomery. She was predeceased by her husband, Robert Shirley Shaull, Jr; her parents; and her brother-in-law, John Montgomery.

“ She was the best cook Joe ever had. I know many people were happy if she was cooking, some wouldn't even order if she wasn't! She always had a smile for everyone!

“Mary was a longtime neighbor on High Street. Always a smile on her face and always supporting school fundraisers when we were young. Mary was quite the cook too at Joes Luncheonette and Potterville Inn. Sad she hasn't been well the past several years. She will be remembered by many as a kind, caring woman. Rest in Peace Mary. My thoughts are with David and your family.
