“ *This beautiful woman I have loved from the moment I can remember loving anyone! I was always proud to be her Great Niece! That southern drawl and spunk oh goodness she was phenomenal. Even in her darkest days she was full of sass and wit which is why we love her so. Her soul was unbreakable, precious and real.
Today I was playing some good r&b on my phone... my daughter was also playing on my phone, some how she found a Bluegrass station...she is newly 3 years old... it began to play & my heart was so full, a confirmation from heaven of her safe arrival.
Sending prayers and so much love to everyone
May God lift our heavy hearts in ways that move us!*

Maudie was my spunky sweet cousin. She always had something nice to say about me., other people. Even tho I didn't get to see her often I was always greeted warmly by her when we did see each other. She will certainly be missed by everyone, especially my husband as they had great telephone conversations. May you Rest In Peace Maudie.
