

Michael Joe DeVoll

June 12, 1951 - November 29, 2024

Michael "Mike" Joe DeVoll, a man of simple pleasures, died November 29, 2024 at the age of 73. Mike was born, June 12, 1951 in Battle Creek, Michigan to Claire DeVoll and Frances (Gooley) Varga. Mike graduated from Pennfield High School in 1970. Mike was drafted into the army in 1970 where he served as a cook stateside during the Vietnam War. Mike loved to drive and held several jobs where he delivered products, then was an over-the-road driver for Schneider National, where he earned the award of driving over a million miles without an incident. Mike retired from Sparrow Hospital as a lab courier. Mike spent the last few years shuttling cars for Hertz. Mike loved all kinds of car racing and John Wayne movies. He was known for his scallop potatoes & ham and bologna spread. Mike volunteered for several years at the Potterville Food Bank and at Sycamore Creek Church. Mike is survived by his son, Stephen DeVoll; granddaughter, Alyssa DeVoll; sister, Betty (Doug) Collins; brother, John (Pam) DeVoll. He was predeceased by both parents and his stepfather, Joe Varga.

Friends are encouraged to support Mike's family by sharing memories on his Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. A Celebration Of Life will be held on Saturday, July 19, 2025 at Sycamore Creek Church in Potterville at 11:30 a.m. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and all the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen. Prayers for you Denise. Prayers for the immediate and extended family. I only spent a few occasions with Mike but I found him to be a friendly and very generous guy.
