“ Peggy was a wonderful woman. I first met her at the age of 15 working at Sharon's Cafe. She became another mom and great friend to me. My fondest memories are our drives to wherever we felt like going and lunches. I will miss her tremendously. Mike, Missy, Eric and Jericho - I am so very sorry. ❤️ You

“ It makes me so sad to hear that Minnie has passed. My memories of her go way back to my teenage years when my sister and I would have Friday night dinner with our mom at The Townhouse. She was the best waitress ever, funny and pretty and happy. I will always think of her that way, in those times, when her face glowed with youth. I wish comfort to all her family during this sad time of loss. Rest in peace Minnie.
