

Naida Mozella Doty

January 2, 1927 - March 23, 2018

Naida Mozella Doty, 91, of Charlotte, died peacefully at home on Friday, March, 23, 2018. Naida was born January 2, 1927, in Olivet, the daughter of Arthur and Esther (Jaquaw) Shook. Naida married Dale Lewis Doty upon his return from serving in the U.S. Army during WWII. Prior to marrying Dale, Naida worked for Weston Biscuit, she was also a proud homemaker, and worked as a crossing guard for the Charlotte Public Schools. Naida enjoyed watching tv, she has never missed a season of the reality show Survivor. Watching soap operas and westerns were also a favorite of hers. Naida also enjoyed playing the guitar, doing word searches and crosswords and crocheting. Above all Naida adored her family.

She is survived by her children, Brenda (Walter) Griffin, Horace Doty, Leon (LouAnn) Doty, Wilma Doty, Glenda Kenyon, and Linda Mulholland; 16 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great-grandchild; sister in-law Anita Shook; and several nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by her husband, Dale; son, Larry Doty; grandchildren, Heavenly Doty, Roger and David Hardenburg; great-grandchildren, Sierra Hardenburg and Michael Scott; and her brothers, Arthur Shook, Bert Barnhart and Elmon Shook.

Funeral services are Monday, March 26, 2018 at 1:00 at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte with Pastor Lester DeGroot officiating. Visitation is Sunday, March

I'm so sorry for the loss of your mother and grandmother. Naida was a caring woman who truly loved her family. We corresponded periodically throughout the past few years and it was her family she spoke of most. This is a picture from Nate Kenyon's high school graduation open house.
