“ My parents loved Nancy as their mail carrier, my dad used to always joke with her and my mom would teasingly say my dad had a crush on her. When my dad passed away I remember her stopping by and she was so sad. She did her best to make getting the mail easier for my mom after dad was gone, even going so far as to bring it right to the door for her. She was a very caring lady with a kind heart. RIP Nancy and say hello to my parents for me..... Jill Maynard-Gidner

“ So sorry to hear of Nancy's passing. I worked with Nancy's husband Larry and son Greg at Diesel Equipment. We all went to their house after work many times. She was so much fun and we had some great times. A couple years ago she knocked on my door and what a surprise it was. She informed me of her marriage and that they were at Long Lake at a cottage they purchased right here in Harrison. She will be missed greatly. My deepest sympathy to the family. God Bless.... “ I met Nancy several years ago in the mid 70's when we lived in the same apartment complex. We hit it off right away. I would occasionally babysit her little daughter, Krissy. The last time I saw her was on her last day of working for the Post Office...she was looking forward to spending leisurely time at the lake and with her family. Nancy was a wonderful person and will be missed by many. My sincerest sympathy goes out to her family. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Grams,

I wish I could sit down and talk with you one last time! We parted ways to early in life and there was a lot left to talk about. Either way, you were my grams and I loved you. I will always remember coming over and swimming in the pool on those hot summer days and digging into the freezer in the garage for an orange creamsicle!

Which, by the way, are still my favorite flavor to this day. Also, how can I forget you ALWAYS made us wait a half hour after eating to get back in the water! (Which seemed like eternity!)

Who could ever forget your love for Christmas dedorations! Even if it was borderline overboard at times these are qualities and memories that defined your individuality. And for those you will be missed!

May you rest in eternal peace.

Love you grandma, Kyle
